

Cell labels show the status observed in the two directions; one pair-level family result was FDR-positive.

